CLEAN HANDS

Disease germs lead a hand to mouth existence. If the human race would learn to keep the unwashed hand away from the mouth many human diseases would be greatly diminished. We handle infectious matter more or less constantly and we continually carry the hands to the mouth. If the hand has recently been in contact with infectious matter the germs of disease may in this way be introduced into the body. Many persons wet their fingers with saliva before counting money, turning the pages of a book, or performing similar acts. In this case the process is reversed, the infection being carried to the object handled, there to await carriage to the mouth of some other careless person. In view of these facts the U. S. Public Health Service has formulated the following simple rules of personal hygiene and recommends their adoption by every person in the United States.

Wash the hands immediately
Before eating,
Before handling, preparing or serving food,
After using the toilet,
After attending the sick, and
After handling anything dirty.

SPELL STATE NAMES OUT

Names of states on letters must be spelled out in full, according to a new order issued from the postoffice department. It was stated that the new order was to be used in an effort to cut down the mail at the dead letter office in Washington. It also was stated that it would eliminate the common mistake of sending mail intended for Colorado to California and vice versa on account of the "Col." and the "Cal."

Thousands of letters are missed each year because of carelessness in addressing the envelope, the order says.

CASSVILLE NEWS

Else Cox of Purdy and Arthur Burrows of Monett were in this city, Thursday.

Miss Kathryn Montgomery has returned from a visit with relatives at Monett and friends at Peirce City.

Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Whitely of Amarillo, Tex. are visiting Mrs. Whitely's father, George Earle and wife of near this city. Mrs. Whitely was formerly Miss Cora Earle, who was born and raised near this city, and who taught school in different places in this country before going to Texas.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mathis of Woodward, Ok., July 30, a daughter. Mrs. Mathis is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ivey of this city.

County Highway Engineer Henry and County Surveyor Henbest went to the Stone county line near Clud Cope's residence in the northeast portion of this county and surveyed the county seat road from that point to McDowell, and it was thought they completed this work yesterday evening. It is hoped this road will be graded the entire distance and put in good condition for travel. This road is along the old wire road and many years ago, largely traveled. This was also formerly the road traveled by the Overland Stage line, with stopping places at the old McCullah and Smith farms, now owned by other people.—Democrat.

VISITING GIRLS ENTERTAINED

Some of the members of the Don't Worry club, together with a number of school teachers, had a supper and theatre party in honor of Miss Hazel St. Louis and Miss Neva Hamilton, Saturday evening.

The girls met at the Deer Hall, then went to the Quick Lunch Cafe where an excellent supper was waiting for them.

After partaking of the "good eats" the girls had a line party to the Gem, then last but by no means least of the evening's enjoyment was a concert in H. I. Bradford's store and the strains of sweet music came from the Pathophone. The words of the music were so clear that it sounded as though the singers were really there in person.

The girls who were partakers in all this merriment were Misses Hazel St. Louis, Neva Hamilton, Vera Boynton, Grace McClanahan, Lena and Edna Scott, Grace Whitlatch, Vera Feist, Ruth Bradford, Beulah Watson, Jessie Hall and Mrs. Willis Coffin.

WOMAN'S UNION MEETS

The Woman's Union met with Mrs. Sig Solomon, Friday afternoon. The assistant hostesses were Mrs. M. C. Shipley, Mrs. Fred Salzer and Mrs. J. V. Dysart.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. A. S. Hawkins, Mrs. J. J. Davis presided over the business meeting. An interesting program was given, Mrs. C. W. Johnston having the home topic and Mrs. H. P. S. Burke, the foreign topic.

Following the program they had social hour and refreshments.

Miss Inez Williams, who was the guest of Miss Iva Suttles, returned to her home in Oklahoma, Monday.
